2021-22 Legislative Session

What can it tell us about what's ahead for UW-Madison?

Noon, Thursday, April 28

Orchard View Room, Discovery Building (330 N. Orchard St.)

Our panel will review the 2021-22 legislative session, discuss its implications for the university, and look forward to what may happen after the 2022 elections, including what UW-Madison needs from the state to remain a top public research university.

PROFS President Michael Bernard-Donals will welcome the panel:

- State Senator Kelda Roys (D-Madison)
- State Senator Eric Wimberger (R-Green Bay)
- University of Wisconsin Regent Amy Blumenfeld Bogost
- UW-Madison Economics Professor Ananth Seshadri

Moderator Jessie Opoien, Cap Times Capitol Bureau Chief

PROFS
Representing UW-Madison Faculty. Strengthening Wisconsin.

ASPRO

This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

profs.wisc.edu PROFSUWMadison @PROFSUWMadison